

1. VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION CELEBRATION

You're Invited!

Have you volunteered at UCP this year—whether by assisting with Sunday services, caring for our building and grounds, helping at events, or supporting behind the scenes? If so, we want to celebrate YOU!

Please join us after the service on Sunday, September 28th for a special Volunteer Celebration and catered luncheon. This gathering is our heartfelt way of saying thank you for all the time, care, and commitment you've given to help our UCP community grow and flourish.

Come share in good food, warm company, and a spirit of gratitude as we honor the many hands and hearts that make UCP the vibrant place it is.

We can't wait to celebrate with you!

3. MEN'S CIRCLE MEETING HAPPENING NEXT SUNDAY, SEPT. 28; 9:15-10:30 – ROOM 103 (CHAPEL)

Topic: A Brief Overview of the "Spectrum of Spiritual Resources"

This Sunday, we'll introduce the topic for next week's Men's Circle meeting: "A Brief but Broad-Based Survey of the Spectrum of Spiritual Resources" This session is especially relevant for anyone committed to being a Truth Seeker and Finder on their personal spiritual journey.

The goal is to provide a broad, yet concise overview of the many spiritual tools and teachings now accessible to people across all traditions. As our world becomes increasingly interconnected, the sharing of spiritual insights across cultures and faiths has grown significantly.

We'll touch on:

Traditional and modern approaches to spirituality

Interfaith and interspiritual dialogue

New fields of research into human meaning, values, and the nature of reality

Resources that help deepen understanding at every level — personal, societal, and cosmic

A handout will be provided with practical suggestions and links to further explore resources that may be relevant to your own path.

You are warmly invited to come, listen, and ask questions. This is an opportunity to discover new tools that can enrich your unique spiritual journey.
